The KNOWLO project during the meeting was put under extensive comparison in contrast with ULCA & L&L Framework models. Based on the comparison results, key facts were determined for the development of the framework: 4 main aspects that were identified are,

- Teachers
- Students
- Management
- Owners

Brainstorming activities were carried out to develop Knowlo model criteria. Main Criteria for the Model

1. Organizational Self-awareness
2. Learning & Communication Cooperation
3. Organization & and the people involved with it
4. Clients/ in this case mostly students
5. Sustainability & and product orientation
6. Digital transformation (Global Context)
7. Results & Benchmarking

Knowlo website creation, Layout for the website, and the matter were agreed. The domain name was unanimously agreed upon. Knowloframework.com. The International College of Cosmetology, project coordinator for KNOWLO project will take the lead in designing the website & and social media pages for the project.

Data Collection from the survey: Survey results will be translated into the English language for universal understanding.
